HEADQUARTERS
JOINT MILITARY RESERVE TRAINING COMMAND (PROVISIONAL)

4 August 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

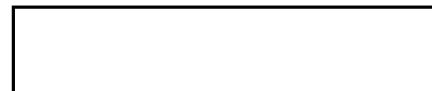

SUBJECT : Request for Keynote Address

1. This memorandum requests that you address the Joint Military Reserve Training Command at 1800 hours on 22 September 1975 in the CIA Auditorium.

2. Your address will be the keynote presentation for the Command's 1975-76 inactive duty training program. You will recall that the Reserve unit is a joint service control group for officers with a mobilization designation to CIA. This years training program will include a variety of lectures on such topics as: petro-politics, world monetary affairs, terrorism, Soviet and Chinese strategic attack capabilities, a Middle East prognosis, U.S. crises reaction forces and the domestic role of the military, CIA/Military agreements, IC Staff activities, and military service intelligence programs.

3. I suggest that your keynote remarks address the evolving role of the DCI as the leader of the intelligence community and how you foresee his role in the future.

4. I plan to introduce you to the Command. My J-3 will call for you at your office at 1745 and escort you to the auditorium.
